A Fine, New Judge is Seated

The last words spoken to Attorney/Assemblyman Richard J. Donovan before he donned the robes of a Municipal Court Judge were in form of a question.

"How do you feel, Dick?" we whispered as they were putting the robe over his shoulders. Press seats were directly behind and it was easy to whisper in his ear.

"Humble," he replied.

There, you have a one-word insight into a man who we think will attract national attention to the judiciary some day.

More than 200 of Judge Donovan's friends gathered Friday in the Continental Room of the Hotel San Diego to observe the induction ceremonies.

All of it was serious and dignified — as you would expect it to be with 23 municipal, appellate and federal court judges sitting in a bank.

A harsh note crept in with the administration of the oath. It is one of the most severe oaths ever devised. Judge Donovan was required to swear to the integrity of his past as well as the future. He had little left but dedication to the law, his country and to the people he will serve.

Then, Jack Bradshaw, who was Donovan's law partner until the judgeship came, recalled in a touching dialog, the long, hard hours spent by Donovan to come to the present point along the pathway of his career.

He recounted the uncomplaining effort Donovan gave in raising a fine family while attending law school. How he had served as a police officer, a marshal, and a clerk of the South Bay court to earn his way as he studied.

He passed the bar on the first attempt, too.

Attempting to encourage assembly candidates to sacrifice good income and normal working hours so that the district could have good government representation, Donovan became enmeshed in his own web. His associates convinced him that he ought to run when they could find no one else as suitable.

Then it was the race, earning a living, helping raise his growing family, and the victory. Bradshaw told that when he came to work early he would find Donovan walking down the halls of the law office shaving with a battery operated razor, getting ready for a coffee meeting.

There really wasn't much presiding judge Earl Cantos could say after that simple eloquence. So he adjourned the meeting.

Hospital Care is Costlier

Your hospital bill is costing you more and if you enjoy it less, another jolt has just arrived — after today another 20 per cent is being added.

Grossmont hospital, the people's hospital, not only plans a $6 day increase in room rates but it is fresh from a $1-$3 increase which became effective July 1.

Nine years ago, this publication sponsored a campaign to get Grossmont Hospital directors to extend a $2 a day discount to the people who paid for the hospital by way of property taxes.

These taxes are still being paid but the discount was discontinued on July 1.

We think this is unfair!

Residents from outside the district who have no financial obligations are using one of the superior hospital facilities in the state — and they pay no year-after-year taxes, such as we do.

Not only did the governing board decide to cancel the discount, they raised the rate of rooms $1 a day. That brings the rate for semi-private rooms up to $ 27 and private ones to $31. After today rates will be $30 and $34.

Arguments for dumping the discount are logical though not desirable.

Board president Charles Hesser, a Lemon Grove resident, claims that it is the insurance people who get the benefit of the discount — not the taxpayer.

John Whiteman, controller of Grossmont Hospital, said 85 per cent of the patients there are covered by insurance. He also said that 20 per cent of the patient load comes from outside the district.

Both Hesser and Whiteman explained that the 5 per cent raise given nurses recently dictated the need for dropping the local-resident discount. The raise costs the district $117,000 a year. The increase of $1 a day and dropping the taxpayers' discount produces $150,000 a year.

Hesser said "I'd be glad to restore the discount, but it would be up to the total board to decide to do it.

Hesser also explained that Medicare requires that hospitals have only one rate. "Maybe this requirement will be one of the 'bugs' they will work out of the program later," he said.

In any event it's reached the point where a guy can't afford to be sick, and the loss of the tax-payers' discount is as bitter a pill as there is to swallow.

L.G. Schools Prepare For 4,100 Students

A week before vacation ends for 4,100 pupils in Lemon Grove, teachers prepare for the ten months of school scheduled for 1966-1967 with three full days of meetings begining Tuesday.

Dr. Lantos, economist, who also serves as president of the Millbrae Board of Education, is a graduate of the University of Budapest, his native city. He earned his MA degree at the University of Washington and his PhD degree at the University of California.

The afternoon session Tuesday is devoted to the first meeting this school year of the Lemon Grove District Teachers Association, a chapter of the California Teachers Association. Thomas E. Brogan, Lemon Grove Junior High teacher, is president.

Wednesday includes grade level metings, room preparation time, and building meetings of the staff. At noon the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club hosts new teachers and principals at a luncheon.

Cattle Rustlers Corralled Here

Two Lemon Grove residents were among five persons arrested last Friday morning by Sheriff's deputies in Lemon Grove on charges of cattle rustling.

Rosalie Katherin Robertson, 45, and a 15-year-old boy, both of 3743 Olive St., were nabbed along with three other suspects after the shooting and butchering of an Angus yearling cow on the Manzanita Indian Reservation.

Others arrested were Henry Arthur Serrano, 31, of the reservation; Josephine Serrano, 39, also of the reservation; and Salvadore Lenone Hernandez, 22, of Tecate, Mex.

The investigation and arrests came about after Charles Riggs of Boulevard reported the incident to the Sheriff's office. Riggs' cow had been shot through the head and then butchered with only the head, feet and intestines left behind.

Investigating officers discovered tire tracks and followed them to a cabin owned by Josephine Serrano. A tip received by the deputies led them to the Lemon Grove residence where they discovered two of the suspects sleeping in the back of a pickup along with the victim.

Otay Water District Commended By CWA

The San Diego County Water Authority, the importer and wholesaler of water to municipalities and local water districts in San Diego County, has commended the water reclamation program in Otay and the Lakeside-Santee area (Rio San Diego Municipal Water District) and has suggested increased application of water reclamation programs among its member agencies.

CWA general manager and chief engineer Linden R. Burzell forwarded a resolution of the 34-member CWA board of directors in a letter to member agencies explaining that reclamation and re-use of waste water should be recognized as desirable to preserve local supplies and derive maximum benefit from the water that is now imported 300 miles from the Colorado River through the three pipelines of the San Diego Aqueduct.

4-5 Deaths Predicted For S.D. During Labor Day Weekend

The National Safety Council has predicted that 530 to 630 persons will die in traffic accidents during the 3-day holiday weekend from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight, Monday.

"While San Diego County may account for only four or five of these fatalities, there is more to consider than the impersonal quoting of statistics," said Dr. Thomas Lyons, president of the San Diego County Traffic Safety Council.

"I wonder if we fully realize that each one of these statistics actually represents a human life, that, when snuffed out by a traffic accident, leaves a tremendous burden of grief and financial loss to the many loved ones and friends who are left behind."

"While the number of people killed over a long holiday period usually makes the headlines, consider the thousands more who suffer agonizing injuries or who are permanently disabled for life as the result of a careless mistake."

"Accidents are costly, too," said Dr. Lyons. "During 1965 alone, traffic accidents cost the residents of San Diego County a record $45 million dollars. This amounts to about $126,000 per day."

"It's a sad testimony," continued Dr. Lyons, "that as every major holiday weekend approaches, the Safety Council is flooded with calls for estimates of how many will be killed this year, or what was the number last year, or, what is the worst weekend on record."

"No one ever calls to find out how to prevent being involved in an acident."

As an accredited chapter of the National Safety Council, the San Diego County Traffic Safety Council does compile traffic accident statistics. However the primary objective of the Council is to help prevent accidents through public education and information.

If you are interested in free accident prevention information, write the Council office at 538 Land Title Building, San Diego, California, 92101, or telephone 234-6115.

It could be, that if the right five people called, San Diego County would not record any fatal statistics this Labor Day weekend.

Read Luke 24:28-35

"Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked to us on the road?" (Luke 24:32, RSV)

We read in the Old Testament that as Moses kept the flock of Jethro, the angel of the Lord appeared to him. We read also that as Ezekiel sat among the captives he saw visions of God. These incidents are vivid reminders that, if we are prepared, we can meet God in the commonplace duties of everyday living.

One of the greatest illustrations of this comes from the New Testament. While fishing on the Sea of Galilee, Peter saw the risen Lord, not in a blaze of glory, but as the man on the shore who had lighted a fire and cooked a breakfast for his friends.

When the psalmist looked back on his life, he could see that God was with him, not only in the green pastures and beside the still waters, but in the valley of the shadow and in the very presence of his enemies. God's goodness and mercy followed him all the days of his life.

It is wise not only to seek God in the holy places of public and private devotion, but to be ready to meet Him in the whole of living.

Prayer: Teach us, O God, that wherever we seek Thee, we may find Thee, and therefore every place can be hallowed ground. Enrich our lives this day by Thy presence. We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

Though for the day: When we live close to God, we sense His presence wherever we are.

'God Heals Sick' Is Sermon Topic

God's use of man as His witness will be a major theme of the Bible Lesson on "Man" at Christian Science church services this Sunday.

The Golden Text is from Job —"God exalteth by his power:—Remember that thou magnify his work, which men behold."

Passages to be read from the denominational textbook will include these lines: "God will heal the sick through man, whenever man is governed by God . . . The highest earthly representative of God, speaking of human ability to reflect divine power, prophetically said to his disciples, speaking not for their day only but for all time: 'He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also;' and 'These signs shall follow them that believe' ".

Red Cross Needs Volunteer Workers

An announcement calling for more volunteer workers to help with many services to the community and to our military world-wide was made by Lt. Col. Charles E. Mosse, Air Force Reserve.

Col. Mosse, a counselor in the Grossmont High School District, is chairman of the Helix Branch of the San Diego Chapter of the American Red Cross which serves Spring Valley, Lemon Grove, and La Mesa.

The many activities supported by the local branch are disaster preparedness, service to military families, first aid training, water safety and the backyard swim program, entertainment for hospital wards, youth training programs, and the ever-demanding production of bandages, first aid kits, and layettes and clothes for foreign disaster children.

The first organizational meeting for the new chairman will be Sept. 1 at the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce Building at 12:45. However, regular and new volunteers are urged to come and get acquainted at the 12 noon luncheon served prior to the meeting. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Richard Allen of Spring Valley at 469-8747 or Mrs. Robert Pentland of La Mesa at 469-3506 by 100 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 1.

Red Cross is not a welfare program but an organization chartered by Congress and the fifty states to step in under the principle of American free enterprise and manage group and individual disasters resulting from war or nature on the rampage, according to Col. Mosse.

Combo Fandango Slated

A rhythmic, lively evening's sampler of San Diego's performing arts will be presented in the Community Concourse Convention Hall Sept. 28 as the three beneficiary groups of Combo I present Combo Fandango.

Patrons of the performing arts will be entertained by the San Diego Symphony, Old Globe Theater and the San Diego Opera.

And, in addition, arrangements are being made for the appearance of a guest celebrity entertainer of the lighter vein.

In a relaxed atmosphere similar to the Potpourri that opened the Community Concourse two years ago, informal seating at table of 24 is arranged for downstairs.

The San Diego Symphony with guest conductor John Green, composer-conductor and winner of four Oscar Awards, will present "Three Musical Portraits."

Old Globe Theater will present the enchanting Will Geer, noted Shakespearean actor and interpretor of American folklore, in "Three American Portraits."

The San Diego Opera will present Margery MacKay, the glamorous mezzo-soprano opera star, in 'Three Amorous Ladies: Portraits in Opera."

An optional buffet dinner will be offered at 7 p.m. upstairs in the Convention Hall, preceded by a no-host social hour at 6:30. Curtain is at 8:30 Lawnstairs bars will open at 8 and will be open during intermissions.

The evening is not a fund-raising event as indicated by ticket prices of $5 and $3. Rather, it is an evening of fun and a thank-you gesture by the three organizations to Combo I for the $230,155 it raised for them in auction last year.

Edward R. Taylor, president of Combo II, said an additional highlight of the evening will be the announcement of which groups have been selected to be beneficiaries of the Combo II auction May 27. This year's goal is $400,000.

Peace Corps Placement Test Set For Sept. 10

The application form, not the placement test, however, is the most important factor in the selection of Volunteers. Persons interested in serving in the Peace Corps must fill out an application and present it to the tester before taking the test. Applications may be obtained from local post offices or from the Peace Corps, Washington, D. C. 20525.

Vener Opens Hard-Hitting Campaign For Congress

Sam Vener opened his campaign to unseat Democrat Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin in Lemon Grove Friday and uncorked some verbal fireworks that indicated the 37th Congresional race is going to be a hot one.

Addressing the members of the L. G. Men's Club, Vener, a wealthy South Bay produce rancher, charged Van Deerlin with being a party to the devaluing of the dollar, the loss of respect for law and order, failure to prosecute with vigor the war in Viet Nam, and the administration's "wasteful give-away" program.

"Van Deerlin is no more than a rubber stamp," Vener said. "He has done a fine job of public relations but he is publicizing himself with taxpayers' money."

"The devalued dollar, the buying power of which is going down daily, is diluting the pay check of every working man and woman," said Vener. "They can't properly feed their families, meet their payments, and maintain their credit rating when their pay checks buy less and less every month. The foreclosures you have read about the last few days are but the beginning."

Vener went on to say that there was a "great hullaballoo when steel prices were raised $3 a ton, yet when foodstuffs go up hundreds of dollars a ton, the housewives were blamed for not buying cheaper foods.

Other Venerisms: "Stop vacillating in Viet Nam and revive patriotism.

"Stop foreign aid to countries aiding North Viet Nam.

"Reverse the government's philosophy that it has a right to manage the news and to lie to its people.

"Stop farm subsidies right now in crops that are in short supply.

"Regain world confidence in U.S. currency to stem the out flow of gold.

"Restore respect for law and take steps to keep order by making responsibility a part of privilege."

Vener has been a successful businessman in the South Bay area for the past 20 years employing as many as 800 during crop season.

Developmental Reading Program Now Under Way In SV Schools

A new developmental reading program will get under way this fall in many California elementary school districts.

The 1965 Miller-Unruh Basic Reading Act provided for the testing for reading failure of first and second graders in California last May. This year the districts which wish to participate can obtain extra funds for the training and payment of special developmental reading teachers.

The La Mesa-Spring Valley school district has 11 teachers which have passed special exams and are now accredited for the new reading program. They will cover eight of the district's 17 schools. The district hopes more will be available later for work at the other schools.

Reading help will be given to second and third graders who fell within the lower fourth of the reading tests given last year. Not all of the e young sters are very poor readers, but testing situations may make children score below their capabilities.

The district expects state funds to cover about 60 percent of the added costs, with the district providing the rest.

The Lemon Grove school district already employs two reading specialists. As the school population in Lemon Grove is not increasing, the district has made no plans to participate in the program provided by the Miller-Unruh Act.

District authorities said in the year following there may be a need for more specialists, in which case the program could go into effect. At the present time, the money necessary and the lack of additional pupils are the two factors which do not make the program part of the Lemon Grove policy.

"The purpose of the program is to pump more reading specialists into the first three grades so pupils may get more individual attention, and to cut class size vigorously for kids who are not learning to read," said Senator George Miller, Jr. (D-Contra Costa), chief author of the Miller-Unruh legislation.

Approximately 700 000 children were tested in California last May. Miller predicted that eventually the program will involve 10,000 reading specialists and could cost the state $50 million per year. State investment in the program for 1966-67 will be $8.9 million.

Harold Winkler, executive officer to the State Senate's Finance Committee, expects the California State Legislature to consider a similar new program in mathematics.

Delinquent Tax Notices Sent To Californians

Bills and delinquent tax notices have been sent to about 100,000 Southern California taxpayers who failed to submit full payment with their 1965 income tax returns, said Robert A. Riddell, District Director of Internall Revenue.

"Taxpayers who receive a bill or notice should submit full payment promptly in order to avoid enforced collection action," he advised.

Taxpayers who cannot pay the full amount of the tax and interest shown on the bills which they receive should immediately contact the nearest office of the Internal Revenue Service. They are listed in the telephone directory under U.S. Government, Treasury Department.

Deputy Assessor Cox Guilty On 6 Counts; Asks Retrial

SAN DIEGO (CNA — Former Chief County Deputy Assessor John Cox was found guilty Monday of four counts of bribery, one count of conspiracy and one of falsification of public records.

The Superior Court jury deliberated for about 24 hours including Saturday and Sunday before returning the verdict early Monday afternoon.

Cox, of National City, was found guilty on all counts except ten which Judge Verne O. Warner directed the jury to return a not guilty verdict.

His two co-defendants, Homer Goehler, 77, a Portland tax attorney, and Ralph Yeo, 67, a San Mateo tax attorney, were found guilty of conspiring to obstruct the administration of laws through obtaining reductions in assessment not applied to other taxpayers. (This was one of the charges against Cox.)

Arguments for a new trial and the probation hearing date was set for Sept. 19. The three men were allowed to remain on bail pending the hearing. It appears that Cox as a public official found guilty of taking a bribe is not eligible for probation.

All of the counts carry a one year to 14 years in the state prison.

County Assessor John McQuilken was among those named by the County Grand jury but his death last October was listed as a suicide by the county coroner.

One of the bribes that Cox was convicted of taken was a $5,000 1956 Rolls Royce automobile.

The investigation by the district attorney and grand jury lasted about six months. The trial was 63 days old before the jury got the case for decision.

CHP Forces To Increase

California Highway Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden said today that Labor Day holiday travelers are apt to notice an increase in the uniformed strength in the California Highway Patrol.

Crittenden said this as part of a joint statement with California Medical Association president Dr. James C. MacLaggan of San Diego in which both urged California drivers to watch for the symptoms of potential accidents. These they listed as driving while sleepy or after drinking, or even when angry.

For his part, MacLaggan referred to the traffic accident as a major public health problem. Its staggering cost in human lives, misery and money has aroused increased concern in the medical community.

Crittenden indicated complete agreement with MacLaggan and said the Patrol has been authorized to double its force in order to help Californians with the problem.

"Some of these new men are already on freeways near metropolitan centers in California," said Crittenden, "and drivers will notice this increase on Labor Day weekend.

"The increase in manpower and the increased awareness of our mounting injury and death problem should serve to alert Californians to drive by all rules of the road this Labor Day weekend, and on every day they drive."

C.V. Demos Meet With Welfare Man

"Welfare in California" will be the featured topic of Thursday night's Chula Vista Democratic Club meeting, announced Wadie P. Deddeh, club president.

William Walton of the San Diego County Welfare Department will be the featured speaker, Deddeh said.

The regular monthly meeting will begin at 7:45 p.m. in Vista Square School.

Deddeh, who is in his second term as Democratic Club president, this June won the Democratic primary in the 77th Assembly District.

Three weeks ago Deddeh called for a complete study of the California welfare program by the League of Women Voters. Deddeh said the interest in welfare as indicated by his meetings with voters made the study by the "highly respected, nonpartisan League of Women Voters" a necessity.

Deddeh expressed his views in a letter to Gov. Pat Brown.

Two Ex-Addicts Tell Valley Kiwanis Of Synanon House

Two guests of Synanon House were guest speakers at the breakfast meeting of the Spring Valley Kiwanis Club Aug. 24.

The two men, John K. and Frank L., told how persons trying to get off "the stuff," are treated. They are not given chemicals or rough treatment; merely talked to in a sensible way and made to understand dope is not for the human body. They said when one of the guests gets out of line he is seated in a chair facing everyone else and given the "shame" treatment; told what a fool he is and what harm the stuff does to you.

Frank L., who was a top musician for many years, told how difficult it is to stay off drugs once you get the habit. He said he started because it seemed to be the style among musical groups, and thought he could play an instrument much better if he was under the influence of dope.

John K., who is 19 years of age, said he started because he was scared of anything and anyone, and decided, "I'll show 'em." He told of the many times he had been arrested and in jail. He said he finally came to the conclusion that something had to be done and applied to Synanon House for help. He had only gone to the 9th grade in school, but at Synanon he has studied hard.

There are about 200 addicts at Synanon House seeking the cure, and out of these about 100 are women. The House cares not only for adults, but for their children as well.

Many jobs are procured by Synanon House for those who wish to leave, but there are many jobs within the House itself. Ex-addicts are encouraged to stay for four years though the stay is not compulsory. After three years a person becomes an employee of the House and can work his way to responsible positions, the men pointed out.

How is Synanon House financed? Mainly by donors, John K. said. There are many big local companies interested in the work done there. The House receives no help from the County, State or Federal government, John K. said. He said that the House does not seek aid from the three governmental agencies, because there would be "too many strings attached."

What makes a drug addit? The answer was, "The character of a person plus the availability of drugs.

How can we stop the flow of drugs into our country? "The flow will never be stopped. Drugs are all over the world, and the only thing we can do is educate the people on the harm of drugs and the consequenses that come with the use."

Spring Valley Kiwanis Club soon will begin plans for the annual "pancake breakfast," scheduled for Oct. 8 at Mt Miguel High School.

Rest Home Group Asks Higher Wages

Ralph Cook, president of the Sanitarium and Rest Home Association of San Diego County said this week that his organization had adopted new salary schedules and per-diem rates following a meeting at Scripps Memorial Hospital, Wednesday evening. The recommendations took effect Sept. 1 and were as follows: first, an increase of $1.50 per day for nursing and related services, second, an increase in Registered Nurse salaries to range upward from $475 per month; third, an increase in LVN monthly salaries to range upward from $330 per month; and fourth, an average increase of up to 10% above the state minimum wage for other nursing and related personnel.

The membership noted that the daily rate increase would initially apply only to patients not receiving federal or state aid and instructed representatives of the State Association to press for an immediate increase in current rates allowed for public assistance recepients. It was pointed out that on a statewide basis, 70% of the patient load in nursing homes are public assistance patients and unless relief is forthcoming, many homes will be unable to meet the personnel pay increases recommended.

THE WEEK IN SPORTS

'Superstition' First Again

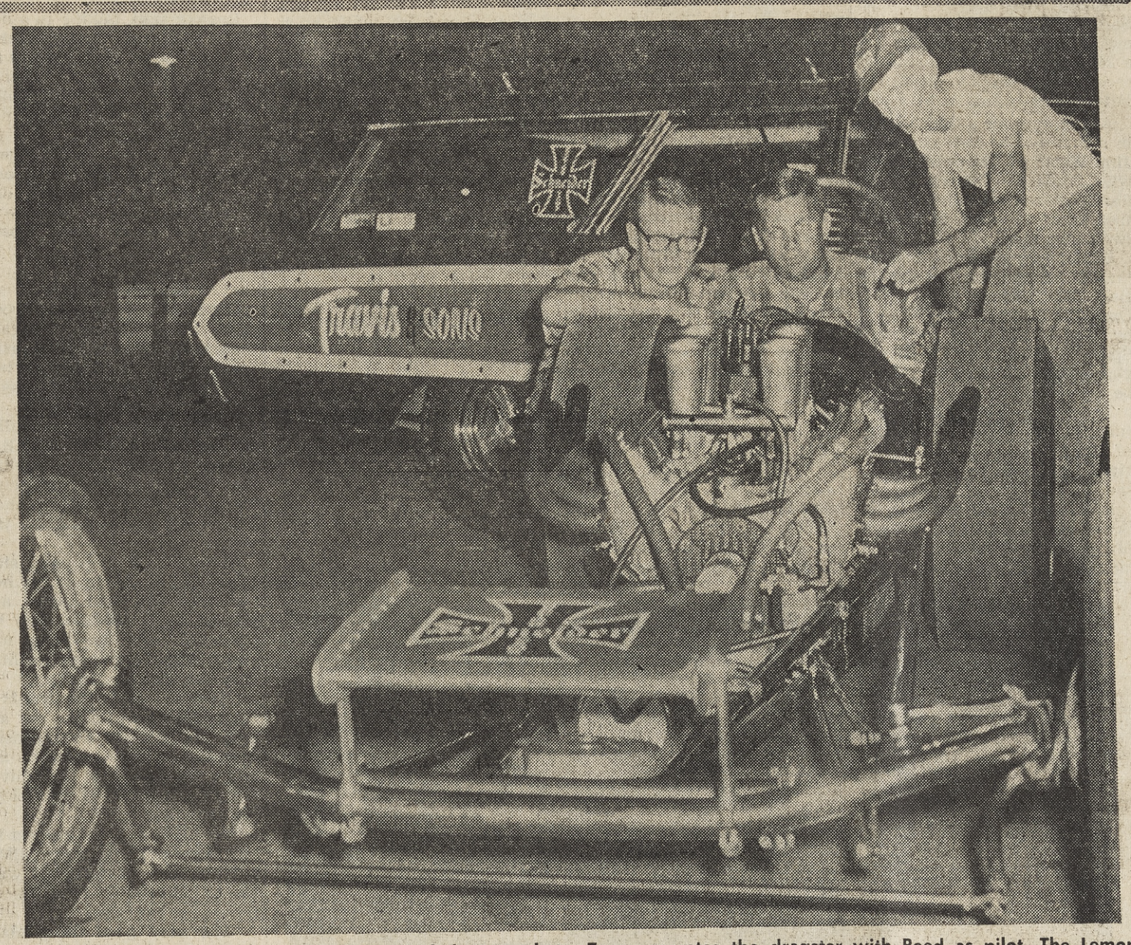
"Superstition," the Chevrolet-injected fueler owned by Lemon Grove's Travis and Sons-Killalea Racing Team and driven by Larry Reed, won the top eliminator honors at San Diego Dragway last Saturday night for the sixth time in eight weeks.

The Lemon Grove-based high performance machine clocked 8.62 seconds elapsed time and 172 miles per hour to defeat Coffin and Hardman of San Diego.

Randy Walls' 396-blown Chevy II defeated Jim Wetton in a special "funny car" match race. Walls took the first two of a best-of three series.

Ramona's Bob James captured his ninth straight victory in the motorcycles with an e.t. of 12.11 and mph of 107.01.

Carl Hayes of Lemon Grove took hot rod eliminator with marks of 12.59 and 111.24.



A WINNER — Examining "Superstition", a fuel dragster that has won six of the last eight top eliminator prizes at San Diego Dragway, are (r-l) Ben Travis, co-owner; driver Larry Reed and an unidentified fan. Travis and Sons-Killalea Racing Team operates the dragster with Reed as pilot. The Lemon Grove fueler can be seen Saturday night at San Diego Dragway in Ramona.

SD Christian High Classes To Start

The Christian High School of San Diego will begin its second year of operation Sept. 12 with registration of students and a testing program.

An enrollment of 80 students —up 48 from last Fall— is expected. This year, for the first time, enrollment will include the 12th grade. Classes will begin on Sept. 14.

Remodeling of the school's facilities is being completed to provide additional library and office space, two additional classrooms, and dressing and shower facilities for the girls' physical education program.

Two new full-time faculty members and three part-time members have been added this year.

Peter A. Stevenson is principal.

Top Mexican Matador Joins Torero Card

Manuel Capetillo, Mexico's number one-ranked matador, will head the Labor Day weekend card at 4 p.m., Sunday in Tijuana's downtown bullring.

Competing with the famed artist will be his countrymen Guillermo Carvajal and Humberto Moro.

Capetillo, reputed to be the world's greatest artist with the muleta or small cape, is having one of his best years.

He starred in the 1965-66 winter season in Mexico City and in December at Merida, Yucatan, recorded what has been called the finest performance of his career.

Carvajal, who has not been seen locally for several years, returned from Spain in January to begin a comeback tour of his native land. He has scored several triumphs in central Mexico.

Moro, the matador with the "golden left hand," will offer Capetillo some competition with the small cape. He won ovations for his work during an appearance here last month.

The trio will face bulls from Las Vegas breeding ranch.

The swordsmanship of Pepe Luis and Rafael Rodriguez Vazquez earned each of the two matadors an ear last Sunday at the downtown arena. Jaime Rangel lost a possible ear from his second bull with a slow kill.

A crowd of 7,500 persons watched Vasquez kill perfectly in the unusual "receiving" style, standing his ground as the bull charged instead of going in over the horns. Rodriguez scored with a one-thrust kill to his first bull.

Bulls from Ernesto Cuevas were as huge as advertised, but same had weak forelegs and fell repeatedly.

Local Swimmers Crack Six Pacific SW Records

Twenty-three Pacific Southwest swim records were broken in a four-day championship aquatic meet Thursday through Sunday at the National City Municipal Pool.

It was expected that records would be washed out because only the top sixteen swimmers of the county in each age group and stroke were eligible. Six new records went to east county swimmers.

Terry Boone, of La Mesa, broke three records. She took the 13-14 year-old backstroke and individual medley records and then moved up to the senior girls group and broke their backstroke record. She was also a member of the medley relay team which broke a record— giving her four championships for the meet.

Lisa Goodwin, of Lemon Grove, became county breaststroke champion in the girls 11-12 year-old class when she won the event and shaved 0:01.1 off the old record for a new record of 1:32.3.

Steve O'Keefe, of La Mesa, produced a new record in individual medley for senior boys.

Medley relay teams also set records. Carman Ranch club's 10-and-under girls and La Mesa Swim club's 13-14 year-old girls copped championships.

Lemon Grove's Suzy Putnam took the diving championship in the 12 and under class. She also entered the senior girls competition and was awarded second place.

Santa Barbara Races On Tap

Three reigning National Sports Car driving champions are among the entrants for the Santa Barbara Sports Car Races this weekend.

Bill Young, Jerry Titus and Emmet Brown will be among the contenders at Saturday and Sunday's competition on the Sata Barbara Airport Track in Goleta, Calif.

Practicing and qualifying will start Saturday at 9:30 a.m. Sunday's practice begins at 9:30 a.m. with regional championship point races at 11 a.m.

Over 350 cars are expected for the weekend racing.

$2½ Million In Hydroplanes To Compete For San Diego Cup

More than 2½ million dollars worth of "gold plated" racing machines will roar down Mission Bay during the San Diego Cup "hydro-ganzia" Sept. 22-25.

At least 15 of the world's fastest — and most expensive — speed boats have indicated their intention of entering this year's hydroplane competition, according to chairman Paul Strombeck of Mission Bay Associates, sponsors of the "world's fastest hydroplane event."

New world speed records were set during the races here last year.

Dixie Cola

Formal entries have been received, so far, from the boats Dixie Cola, Miss Budweiser, Chrysler Crew, Miss Smirnoff, The Loaner, and Wayfarers Club Lady.

Always a top contender on the hydroplane circuit, Miss Budweiser is now in second place in the current season standings.

Miss Chrysler has earned the nickname "Miss Noisemaker" because of the staccato beat of her tremendous engine as she pounds down the straightway. She does not trail the rooster-tail of spray and spume which are the trademark of most hydroplanes.

Expensive

Not only will the world's fastest boats be screaming over the record-setting Mission Bay course, but the world's most expensive water speedsters, as well.

The average cup contender is a custom built masterpiece of hull and machinery costing upwards of $3,000 a foot, not to mention the expense of transportation, maintenance, repair and insurance on the gruelling, summer-long racing circuit.

Boats will compete for $15,000 in prize money here. Like the prize money in all races, this is little more than token payment for the millions of dollars spent every year to build and race these powerful but delicate spume-tailed speedsters.

Improvisions

As San Diego takes its place with Detroit, Seattle, Coeur D'Alene, and Washington, D.C., as a world center of "hydro-ganzia", accomodations are being enlarged and improved for the constantly growing number of water speed addicts.

There will be more grandstand seating, greatly enlarged parking and better viewing conditions at this year's event, Strombeck said.

There will be grandstand accomodations for 1,300, plus a new macadamized, dust-free lot for 650 cars in addition to the usual large parking areas.

YMCA Swim School To Begin Sept. 12

The scond annual summer's end Y.M.C.A. swim school starts Sept. 12, according to Russ Bope, Heartland Y executive, and will run for fou rweeks with two lessons a week.

A new program is being added for the "Diaper Set", ages six months to three years. Mother and child work together in the water under the direction of an instructor.

Tiny Tot classes for the 3-4-5 year olds are held Monday and Wednesday mornings.

Regular classes for boys and girls six years of age and above for beginners, advanced beginners, swimmers and advanced swimmers are held on Monday - Thursday and Tuesday - Friday

Women's classes are held on Monday and Wednesday mornings for both beginners and swimmers or for those who just want to swim for exercise.

A special bonus feature has also been added. For students and members of their families there is a practice and fun time on Wednesdays. Each of the fun sessions will end with a coin scramble.

All instruction is held at the Turquoise Swim School Pool on Millar St. in West El Cajon, one block off West Main St.

Information on the swim school may be obtained by calling the Heartland Y office 466-4161.

CWU To Play Cal Poly In Shrine Game

Two top-ranked California small college football teams will display their gridiron prowess Oct. 8 when they meet in San Diego's Balboa Stadium in the third renewal of the Shrine charity game.

Meeting in the contest which benefits the Shrine crippled children's hospital program will be California Western University and California State Polytechnic College of San Luis Obispo.

The contest will see Cal Western playing its first game of the 1966 season and also will mark the coaching debut of Westerner grid mentor Bob Dinaberg, formerly of Fresno City College.

Cal Western, however, is no stranger to the Shrine event, having played the University of Hawaii in a renewal of the charity game three years ago.

In announcing the grid program, game managing director Victor Stewart said the evening's activities also will include precision drilling by marching units the music of massed bands and a mammoth fireworks display.

First Run Movies Set For Festival

The Underwater Photographic Society's Second Film Festival to be held in the San Diego Civic Theatre, Oct. 7-8, will feature several first-time showings of motion pictures made in this country and abroad.

Among those to be shown are 'Sh . . . Sh . . . Shark" by Peter Gimbel and "Twilight Reef" by Al Giddings, filmed in color in the Mexican Carribean.

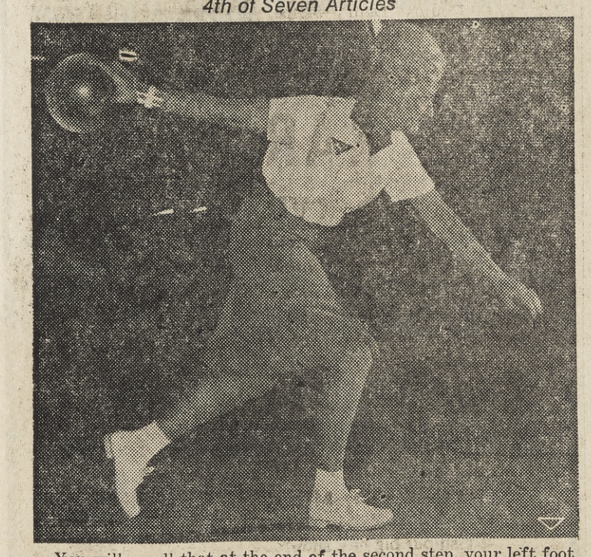
Third Step in the Four Step Delivery

4th of Seven Articles



You will recall that at the end of the second step, your left foot was balancing the weight of your bowling ball which was passing your right knee in its movement into the backswing.

In the third step the ball reaches its height in the backswing. I recommend that the ball should not go any higher than shoulder level. Also make sure that this maximum height is attained when the right foot is on the lane. This maximum height in the backswing is obtained by allowing the ball to swing back naturally under its own acceleration. Again, I wish to stress that the arm should be kept close to the body during this entire backswing movement. Now, you are ready for the last step in the four step delivery.

Attendance Soars At Cajon Speedway Track

Cajon Speedway is expected to top the 100,000 paid attendance mark this weekend when fans attend the two special holiday race programs.

After a two-week layoff the Modified Sportsmen cars duel Saturday night in a 40-lap main event. Also on the program are a 20-lap semi-mainer, four heat races and a trophy dash. The latter event begins at 8:15 p.m.

Attempting for a third victory in a row will be 1965 champion Jim Wood of Ramona. Wood, who pilots the Marck Motors Ford-powered machine, has led from start to finish in the last two main races.

Contenders expected to start include Frank Secrist of Bakersfield, Don Thomas of El Cajon, Don Edmunds of Anaheim, Bobby Hogle of Buena Park and Spring Valley's Lee Robison. A guaranteed purse of $1,500 will be up for grabs.

The Super Stocks take their turn Sunday night. Russ Bullen of San Diego will try for his eighth consecutive win of the season.

Bullen, top point leader in the Super Stocks, has set a new record for consecutive wins. The closest any driver has approached Bullen's mark in the 19-year history of local racing is five wins in six tries.

Last week, Santee rookie Ed Hale battled Bullen for 17 laps before losing by one car length.

The main event Sunday night will be 50 laps. The nine-event program will also have a 25-lap semi-main. Qualifying starts at 6:30 with the first race at 8:15.

15 Races Sunday At Caliente

In a grand finale to the summer portion of its 1966 campaign, Caliente will celebrate the Labor Day weekend with three days of activity topped by 15 thoroughbred races next Sunday.

The track will pursue its customary Labor Day pattern by presenting a regular 12-race card Saturday, follow up with Sunday's program, which starts at 11 a.m., and wind up the holiday period with a special Monday matinee of 12 greyhound races.

Main event Sunday is the Labor Day Purse, a one-mile allowance contest for three-year olds and up which probably will serve as a qualifier for the next stakes fixture south of the border, the colorful $5,000 added Silver Sombrero Handicap to be run Sunday Sept. 11.

Expected to enter the Labor Day are J. W. Nicholson's Divot, who is coming off an impressive sprint victory last week, and such others as Mrs. Flurry, Quiet Clem, Roy Tom Mi Belle, Fleet Royal, Final Step, First Prom, Good Neighbor, Horse Shoes, Sunburster, Valley Ruller and Caliburn.

Man knows when he is licked. So the word obey is being removed from marriage vows.

Politics In Brief

ASSEMBLYMAN PORTER

Assemblyman Carley V. Porter, of Compton, co-author of the state's major water legislation and chairman of the powerful assembly water committee, has said Ronald Reagan is "totally ignorant of California water law and is opening old wounds with his divisive statement on water administration."

Reagan said, talking to a northern California audience, that if elected governor he would appoint a northern Californian as State Director of Water Resources in order to "guarantee" northern water rights.

"Mr. Reagan's crass appeal for northern votes is not only degrading but exhibits a dangerous lack of knowledge of California water laws," Porter said.

Governor Brown

Governor Edmund G. Brown said that Ronald Reagan's "campaign gimmicks" on crime "only serve to illustrate how little he understands the needs of local law enforcement."

Brown, speaking at a Fullerton aerospace plant, said Reagan's notions on crime were like those on other major subjects— "thoughtless affronts to those who really understand the problems involved."

Brown said additional state funds should be used "to help our excellent local police academies, not channeled into the unneeded and unwanted new state police training facilities proposed by Reagan."

"Reagan says he wants J. Edgar Hoover to come out and help us set up an expensive central new police academy and crime laboratory at the University of California at Berkeley," the governor said.

"We all have great respect for Mr. Hoover's professionalism, but I'm sure he wouldn't want his name used to hide the defects of a bad idea.

"The only good thing about this suggestion is that it shows Mr. Reagan doesn't want to cut California off from Washington completely."

RONALD REAGAN

A new approach to political fund raising, on the eve of opening the gubernatorial campaign, has been announced by the Reagan for Governor Committee in San Diego.

Theater Night with Ronald Reagan, at the Civic Theater, Tuesday, Aug. 30, will feature a large number of leading entertainment personalities, and the Reagan family, according to Gordon Luce, Chairman of the San Diego County Committee.

In addition to the Hollywood personalities, local musicians and theatrical talent will participate.

All seats for the show will be reserved and will range in price from $50 down to $5. Those who purchase $50 tickets will be invited to a moonlight ride and a reception aboard the Bahia Belle, on Mission Bay. All proceeds will be used for the Reagan campaign.

Tickets for the event may be purchased at Republican County Headquarters, 7th and Broadway, at the Civic Theatre Box Office, and at Reagan headquarters throughout the county.

Meanwhile, Dr. Roy Ledford and Richard G. Capen, Jr. have been named co-chairmen of the ticket sales committee for the GOP fund-raising banquet at Hotel del Coronado at which Reagan will speak.

"Tickets went on sale on Monday, Aug. 8," a chairman said., and the response was terrific. Before sales began we expected attendance of about 900. Now we're convinced that well over 1,000 will attend the $100-a-plate dinner."

Proceeds from the dinner will help finance campaigns of both local and statewide GOP candidates, as well as operation of San Diego County Republican Central Committee headquarters. The Central Committee is sponsor of the affair.

REP. M. K. UDALL

Rep. Morris K. Udall (D., Ariz.), in a speech before the United States House of Representatives, has challenged the truthfulness of statements issued by the Sierra club about conservation and other issues.

The brother of Secretary of the Interiar Stewart Udall, Rep. Udall referred to comments, made by the Sierra club, about the Grand Canyon, the California coast redwoods and a tax problem.

A copy of the Congressional Record, received here today, reported Rep. Udall declared;

"Now, I do not know the redwoods country very well. In the past I have relied on facts and arguments presented by the Sierra club on conservation matters relating to other parts of the country. I am seriously beginning to wonder whether they could be as careless with the 'facts' on redwoods and other issues as they are on the Grand Canyon."

Rep. Udall said the carelessness of David Brower, executive director of the Sierra club, is beginning to create a 'credibility gap' with this one member of Congress and I suspect with many others."

Politics In Brief

WORLD'S FAIR

Assemblyman Hale Ashcraft, (R) Rancho Santa Fe, Chairman of the Assembly Ways and Means Subcommittee on Fairs and Concessions, announced that a hearing has been scheduled today on a proposed California World's Fair in the Riverside-Corona area in 1969.

"The purpose of the hearing is to determine to what extent the State of California will be asked to participate—financially or otherwise—in the proposed Fair." Ashcraft said, "We also want to ascertain if legislation may be needed in the area of responsibilities or liabilities of State or local entities in connection with such a Fair."

The hearing will commence at 10 a.m. in the Supervisors Chambers, Courthouse, Riverside, and Mr. Sanford Collins, president. California's World's Fair, Inc., will be the principal witness. James R. Mills will represent San Diego.

JAMES UDALL

James M. Udall, prominent Los Angeles realtor, accepted chairmanship of the statewide committee to elect Ivy Baker Priest as state treasurer. The announcement was made today by Ivy Baker Priest, the candidate for the post of state treasurer in the November general election.

Udall said "an all out campaign is already underway statewide to elect the former U. S. treasurer Ivy Baker Priest as the California State Treasurer.

"Ivy can be proud of her record of service as the U. S. Treasurer for eight years during the Eisenhower administration and now for the progress, welfare and growth of our ever-expanding California, we need her services again," Udall added.

Highway Warning Systems

Formation of a citizens' advisory committee to assist a legislative committee in its investigation of highway warning systems to inform motorists of driving hazards was announced today in Sacramento.

Senator Randolph Collier, chairman of the Senate Transportation Committee, announced his intent to appoint the advisory committee pursant to Senate Resolution No. 31 by Senator Jack Schrade of San Diego County.

Schrade's resolution relates to the possibility of using citizen band radios and highway patrol cars to warn motorists of unusual weather and accident conditions and to aid in assisting injured or disabled motorists.

The advisory committee will be composed of leaders in the communications industry, highway user groups and representatives of local and state law enforcement agencies. The committee would report to the 1967 Legislature on its recommendations.

Senator Schrade is a member of the Senate Transporation Committee and has been appointed to serve on the citizen's advisory committee.

TREASURER BERT BETTS

California State Treasurer Bert A. Betts sold two $50 million bond issues at net interest costs of 4.3158 percent and 4.3212 percent — rates which he described as, "high, but reasonable in terms of market conditions."

Winning bidder on a $50 million veterans bond issue was a syndicate headed by Bank of America, one of two bidders for the issue. The other was a syndicate headed by Bankers Trust Co. of New York.

According to Betts and Director of Veterans Affairs Joseph M. Farber, this will not result in any increased cost to the veterans holding farm and home loan contracts.

Winning bidder on a $50 million issue for State beaches, parks, recreational and historical facilities was a syndicate headed by Bank of America. Bankers Trust Co. also submitted a bid on this issue.

Participants with the Bank of America syndicate included Crocker Citizens Bank, United California Bank and Wells Fargo Bank.

WADIE DEDDEH

Women's Committee to elect Wadie Deddeh to the State Assembly from the 77th District met recently in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Aaron Mannis, 446 Jacaranda, to plan a fall fashion show for Sept. 27th.

Serving with Mrs. James Willott and Mrs. Geoffrey Pearson co-chairmen of this bi-partisan fall fashion show will be Mrs. Frank Youtsey and Mrs. Tony Hernandez, tickets; Mrs. Lorenzo Anderson, treasurer; Mrs. Jim Lincoln and Mrs. James D. Roden, advertising; Mrs. Tommie L. Vickers, Jr., door prizes; Mrs. Jack B. Meyers, souvenir programme; Mrs. Frank Slemmer, refreshments; Mrs. Leonard Pienta and Mrs. Raymond Monce, models; Mrs. Al Buffone, set-up and equipment; Mrs. Raymond Monce and Mrs. Robert Manier, decorations; Mrs. J. O. Rodriguez and Mrs. Robert Reeves, publicity; Mrs. William Hedenkamp, typing; Mrs. James L. Keyser, telephone.

Theme for the fashion show, also to be held in the Mannis home, will be "Reflections in Fashions — Just Beautiful Clothes."

HOW FOUR SAN DIEGO CHARGERS FOUND HAPPINESS IN EL CAJON

JOHN HADL QUARTERBACK

KEITH LINCOLN FULLBACK

GEORGE GROSS TACKLE

BOB PETRICH END

Once upon a time . . . in the days of not so long ago . . . when knighthood was in flower . . . and the good kings and princes of the realm made sure everyone was healthy, happy and lived the good life . . . there came upon the jousting and challenging scene a foursome of formidable knights.

This group of valiant stalwarts was in quest of the groaning table of good food which had been their mealtime mainstay while in the training camp of athletes trying to make the grade with the contemporary band of knights known as the SAN DIEGO CHARGERS.

Each of the brave ones was a veteran of many battles on the white-striped field of honor . . . and each was called by the name of his family.

There was Sir John of Hadl . . . Sir Keith of Lincoln . . . Sir Robert of Petrich . . . and the mighty knight from the land of the Franks . . . Sir George of Gross.

And as the four knights, brave and good, journeyed in search of the fabled table it was, as if by Merlin's magic, that they rode into the valley occupied by the famous castle known as SIR GEORGE'S SMORGASBORD HOUSE IN EL CAJON.

And holding forth in the castle were the two noble knights, Sir Charles of Andrews and Sir Isaac of Harper . . . and in this magical castle . . . located in the valley of El Cajon . . . in the clear air east of San Diego it is Sir Charles who is the Keeper of the Galley . . . and Sir Isaac who is the Knight Guardian of Stores . . . and it is this friendly pair who welcome all travelers to SIR GEORGE'S SMORGASBORD HOUSE IN EL CAJON.

Yea . . . in this small castle . . . for a mere pittance . . . is served the finest array of food known in the land . . . and Sir Charles and Sir Isaac . . . honorable nobles that they are . . . make sure that no traveler . . . from far or near . . . ever goes away from SIR GEORGE'S table without an abundant fill of the best a kitchen can offer.

And so it is that the four valiant Charger knights find peace, happiness and fulfillment of the appetite every time they make the trek to the castle of SIR GEORGE'S IN EL CAJON.

Golden days of this era are spent at SIR GEORGE'S, which is known as the center of hospitality for those of large appetite and small purse . . . and so . . . the story ends on a pleasing note as the foursome of Chargers rides forth into the 1966 American Football League season . . . prepared and fortified to ride roughshod over all opposition.

(Now, you don't have to be a knight, or a Charger, to eat at SIR GEORGE'S SMORGASBORD HOUSE IN EL CAJON, but you'll feel like one when you're through and we'll all live happily ever after.)
